Welcome Back.

Welcome to the second half of our Spring Term . This term again is very busy. Next week we have World Book Day on Friday . We encourage all the children to come dressed up as their favourite book character.

We also received a letter this week from Nick Gibb the Minister for School Standards congratulating Cleves on being in the top 3 % nationally for academic progress from Key Stage 1 to Key stage 2 -Well done to all of our hardworking community in Cleves.

In a few weeks we will have Parents Evening and a chance for you all to see the hard work the children have been doing in class. On the 28th March we will have our Spring Concert we do hope that all parents and carers will come and celebrate the end of term with us. Of course if you have any questions please come and see us.

Best Wishes

Sarah Lack

Home Learning

Over the half term classes have been taking part in home Learning Projects with their parents. The projects have been based around their History Topic. Children From Year one have produced some amazing work on Dinosaurs !

Please could you make sure your child brings their school book bag everyday!

Please could you make sure your child is in school on time before the bell goes at 8:55. Any late children should report directly to the school office.

My Maths Class Challenge

My Maths winners this week were 3H

Uniforms

Please remember to wear your tie and black school shoes! Please no jewellery other than small studs for ears.

Young Publishers

Our own Brilliant Club have been meeting at lunchtimes with Ms Gilbert. They produced an amazing magazine about the projects they have been working on. This magazine will be available on the website and you can pick up your free copy at parents evening. Well done to these very talented children.
